

Dystopian Fiction Agree or Disagree?

Look at the statements in the grid. Tick to show whether you agree or disagree with the statements. There isn't a right or wrong answer – it is your opinion, so make sure you think about why you agree or disagree!

Statement	Agree	Disagree
It is right that some people are rich and some people are poor.
Everyone is equal.
It is better not to know about some things and be happy than know about bad things and be sad.
If someone is in charge of the country, they should be able to do whatever they think is right.
We need rules in order to live properly.
If someone doesn't follow the rules of a leader, they should be killed.
The government knows what is best for us.
The police should be able to do whatever they want to keep us safe.
If you don't agree with or like someone, you shouldn't have to spend time with them.
It is OK to upset some people with some decisions if most people are happy.
You shouldn't have to listen to anyone if you know you are right.
The government should be able to watch people to make sure they are not doing anything they shouldn't.
