

Think About It

Changes can either be expected or unexpected. Think about what you would do if these changes happen. Answer the questions honestly.

When you graduate and go to college, how will you cope with the change in your environment?

---

---

---

---

---

Your family move to a new neighborhood. How do you think you can adapt?

---

---

---

---

---

Once you become an adult, you'll eventually look for a job and be with new people. How will you prepare for this change?

---

---

---

---

---

Your pet dog for ten years falls sick and dies. How will you deal with the change?

---

---

---

---

---