

You should know yourself to handle the changes that will happen in to your life. Assess yourself by answering the following questions honestly.

Have you ever experienced a change that you hated but eventually liked? Share the story.

Tell a story of a change you encountered but that did not work out.

Does change make a person grow? Why or why not?
