

Chilli Pepper Facts

An Amazing
Fact a Day

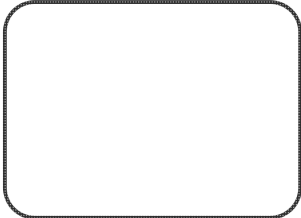

The Indian Army have a non-lethal weapon called a 'chilli grenade' which contains an irritant made from the Bhut jolokia, or 'ghost chilli', which is 150 times hotter than Tabasco sauce.

You could try to find out:

- what the Scoville Scale is;
- what eating a very hot chilli pepper can do to you;
- about gas grenades used in the First World War;
- whether the chilli grenades have been used in action.

Use the Internet or non-fiction books to research the strongest types of chilli pepper. Create a set of top cards about the different types of chilli peppers! Play the game with your friend. Who has the highest value?
